

2011 Phyllis Clarke Memorial Lecture: John Loxley

Dr. John Loxley is a professor in the Department of Economics, University of Manitoba. He specializes in International Money and Finance, International Development and Community Economic Development and has published extensively in these areas.

He has served as an economic advisor to a number of governments, such as the incoming Mandela government of South Africa, and the government of Manitoba, as well as several international institutions.

In 2005 he was elected to the Royal Society of Canada. In May 2008 he was the recipient of the Distinguished Academic Award granted by the Canadian Association of University Teachers and in May 2010 he was awarded the Galbraith Prize in Economics and Social Justice by the Progressive Economists' Forum of Canada.

He has researched public-private partnerships for almost fifteen years and recently published Public Service Private Profits: The Political Economy of Public-Private Sector Partnerships, with Salim J. Loxley, Fernwood Publishers, 2010.

Global Crisis, Fiscal Restraint and Public - Private Partnerships

7pm, Thursday March 10, 2011
Ryerson University
Oakham Lounge, 2nd floor,
63 Gould Street, Toronto

CUPE / Canadian Union of Public Employees

RYERSON UNIVERSITY

Co-sponsored and supported by
Ryerson's CUPE Locals 233, 1281, 3904,
Ontario Council of Hospital Unions/CUPE and the Department of Politics and Public Administration,
Ryerson University

For further information contact Bryan Evans at 416 979-5000 x4199 or e-mail: blevans@ryerson.ca